The Vision

St Mellitus College has experienced remarkable life and growth in its first 10 years. Our vision is for theological education set in the context of prayer and worship that combines academic excellence, a focus on missional leadership, the shaping of Christian character, and the flexibility to fit around busy lifestyles.

Dean Andy Emerton

“Our vision is to train people who will be passionate about the gospel, committed to unity in the Church and energised by the life of the Spirit. Our desire is to continue faithfully following God’s call and I hope you will consider contributing to the next stage in the life of the college.”

President Graham Tomlin

“St Mellitus College promises to be an important and essential contributor for the flourishing of the church across this nation, and the world. Please join us as we seek to equip a church full of Christians to present a coherent witness in a changing world.”

The Need

- Widening access to Higher Education through investment in courses aimed at those currently outside formal education or with English as a second language
- Capital Costs for essential projects to accommodate our growing student body, including the development of additional teaching and study spaces
- Development of Theological Teaching Resources to support churches nationally and internationally
- Investment in Digital Infrastructure to cater for our increasingly large and complex student and alumni networks
- Alumni Community developing ongoing resources for our growing network
- Student Support including annual retreats, subsidised study tours and pilgrimages
